

Program

The Evolution and Settlement of Western Oregon

Thursday, April 12

Arrive OIMB after 5pm (dinner is not provided)

Check in at Residential Cottage #1 for room assignment

Friday, April 13 – Oregon Institute of Marine Biology, Charleston, OR

7am: Breakfast

9:00am: Key note #1: Ray Weldon (University of Oregon)

The ups and downs of the Oregon Coast from timescales of seconds to millenia

Coffee break

10:45am: Key note #2: Stephen Lancaster (Oregon State University)

The Coast Range's Dammed Heavy Tails: Nonlinear Sediment Dynamics or Pleistocene Firestorms?

Noon: Lunch

2pm: Pop-ups (3-5 minute presentations) on whatever comes to your mind!

Coffee break and preliminary poster session

4pm: Key note #3: Loren Davis (Oregon State University)

Searching for Pleistocene-aged Archaeological Sites along Oregon's Coast

5:30pm: Dinner

7pm: Evening Extravaganza: Poster session, mini-field trip, raffle, and libations oceanside!

Saturday, April 14 – Field trip of coastal tectonics, geomorphology, and archaeology

Field Trip led by Ian Madin with fabulous coastal sites.

Departure time: 8am (breakfast at 7am), sack lunches will be provided.